Genealogy and Local History

Heritage Hunters will meet Saturday, January 17th, at 1 pm at the Town of Saratoga Town Hall, 12 Spring St. in Schuylerville. JPV Oliver will lead the program, “George Washington & Saratoga: It’s Complicated.” John will take a humorous look at our 1st President and his involvement with Saratoga County. John has worked as a Museum history guide and speech writer and publishes his musings every day at LoucheLife.substack.com. Program is free and the public is welcome. For info call 518-885-9309

The poster has a vibrant orange and yellow sunburst background. It features a cartoon character playing a saxophone on the left and musical notes. The text is in a playful, hand-drawn style.
