KNICKERBOCKER MANSION'S ANNUAL KNICK-AT-NIGHT SOUPER SUPPER AND GHOSTLY MANSION TOURS

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS,
OCTOBER 23 & 24, 2026

In rounding out our Grand 350th Anniversary Celebration of the 1676 Tree of Peace at Knickerbocker Mansion, please join us for our special Knick-at-Night Souper Supper as we honor the key personalities who forged this epic historic action signifying peace between the Dutch & Indians surrounding Albany and those who preserved its significance for 350 years!

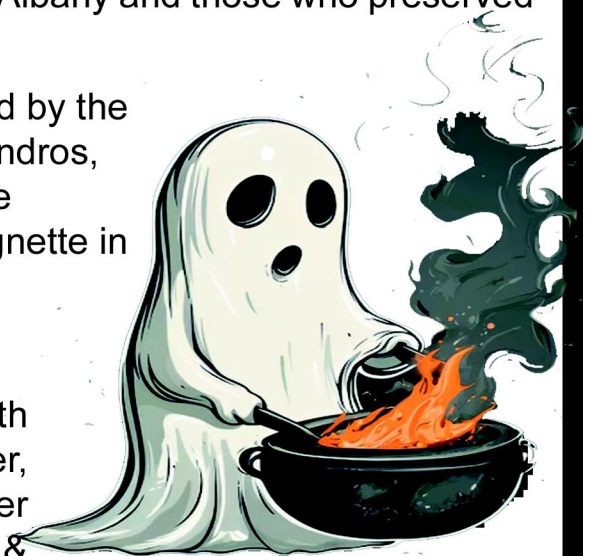

Experience the Mansion's ambience by Moon & Candlelight as you are entertained by the Ghosts of King Philip of the New England Indians; Provincial Governor Edmund Andros, Hiram Janzen Knickerbocker, Johannes Knickerbocker and Charter Member of the Knickerbocker Historical Society, Charlotte Wanko, as they share their parts by vignette in the legacy of the Peace Tree. Your evening will conclude with a guided tour to the location of the Tree if you wish to participate.

DELICIOUS! Fortify yourself before and after your Ghostly entertainments with our Souper Supper! Enjoy hot, steaming crocks of New England Clam Chowder, Potato Bacon Leek Soup, Chili, Sausage Tortellini Soup, Squash & Cauliflower Soup, Chicken Noodle Soup and Autumn Carrot Sweet Potato Soup with Bread & Butter, Cornbread & Dessert along with Hot Coffee & Tea, Hot Chocolate or Lemonade – available under our covered Pavilion or as take-out.

Location: Knickerbocker Mansion, 132 Knickerbocker Road, Schaghticoke, NY, 12184

Dinner: 5:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Ghostly Mansion Tours from 6:00 – 9:00 p.m. – reservations required call 518 588-7132.

Knickerbocker Mansion is considered the most significant historic building in Upper Rensselaer County, located at the convergence of the Hoosic River and Tomhannock Creek, at the base of the historic Indian Trails to Boston. Built by Johannes & Elizabeth Knickerbocker in the 1780s, the Mansion's architecture is of a rare Middle Ages style.

Thank you for considering Knick-at-Night for your October Souper Supper and historic entertainment.

The Knickerbocker Historical Society is a 501 (c) 3 charitable organization and all proceeds fund the restoration and preservation of the Knickerbocker Mansion. www.knickmansion.com
